

I am very concerned that your office is even considering concentrating the public's media any more than it already is. This matter should be decided not in closed-door meetings but by the people.

Allowing businesses to own a greater proportion of media in a market is NOT IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST.